

The Cavendish London Hotel

With a fascinating 200-year history, deluxe 4-star hotel, The Cavendish London, offers 223 guest rooms and 7 suites over 15 floors, with its Junior and Penthouse Suites enjoying panoramic views of London's impressive skyline. With an ideal central location and an abundance of facilities including four unique event spaces, central London parking, and all-day dining in Mayfair Lounge & Grill restaurant, the Cavendish makes visiting the capital – whether for business or leisure – a pleasure.

Today, the hotel owes its illustrious heritage to the famous British chef, Rosa Lewis, also known as 'The Duchess of Duke Street', who was once its proud owner. Rosa's immensely kind nature and approach redefined the true meaning of hospitality and her spirit very much lives on in the day-to-day life at The Cavendish London.
