

OUT & ABOUT

Hazlitt's is located in Soho, right in the heart of London's gay social scene. There are plenty of gay and gay friendly bars and restaurants on our doorstep. It is worth taking a wander to discover the local area for yourself. Here are a few of our favourites:

Bars

Duke of Wellington, Wardour Street.

Casual mixed crowd.

G.A.Y. Bar, Old Compton Street.

For the younger generation.

Admiral Duncan, Old Compton Street.

Soho Institution.

Candy Bar, Carlisle Street.

London's No. 1 lesbian bar.

Restaurants

Balans, Old Compton Street.

International cuisine.

Cafe Boheme, Old Compton Street.

French food, brasserie style.

Barrafina, Frith Street.

Barcelona style tapas.

Arbutus, Frith Street.

Modern European.

Cultural Highlights

British Museum.

The ancient world under one roof.

National Gallery.

From Old Masters to the Impressionists.

National Portrait Gallery.

A visit the Tudor galleries is a must.

Theatreland Highlights

Singing in the Rain, Palace Theatre, Cambridge Circus.

The film musical brought to life on stage.

Matilda, Cambridge Theatre, Earlham Street.

Roald Dahl's beloved book is re-told as an award winning musical.

One Man, 2 Guvnors, Theatre Royal, Haymarket.

Transferred to the West End following its successful run at the National Theatre.

Hilarity assured.