

Out & About in NYC

Etcetera Etcetera

Restaurants & Bars

Merely steps away from the lights of Broadway, Etcetera, Etcetera is the perfect venue for either pre or post-theatre dinner, Mouth-watering Italian fare with Mediterranean accents served in an ambience punctuated by modern art and industrial design elements draws New Yorkers and tourists alike to this chic Midtown haven.

352 West 44th Street (212) 399-4141

The Townhouse Bar

A cocktail party every night - where one sees good friends and acquaintances, meets new people, and sometimes even meets someone with whom he falls in love. Many matches have been made at the TownHouse over the past twenty years, when we opened as New York City's only truly elegant gay bar, catering to upscale, professional gay clientele.

236 East 58th Street (212) 754-4649

Pieces

Designed to be a different kind of New York City gay bar you will most certainly have fun at PIECES. New York's best Happy Hour starts at 2 pm Monday through Friday with drink prices starting at just $3!

8 Christopher Street (212) 929-9291

Industry Bar

Bob Pontarelli and Stephen Heighton, two of the most influential and successful entrepreneurs in New York's gay nightlife, opened Industry Bar in 2010. A new kind of gay bar in Hell's Kitchen.

355 W. 52nd Street New York, NY 10019

Out & About in NYC

The Monster

Joe's Famous Piano Bar
and Dance Club

Clubs & Nightlife

The nightclub named after a carved wooden sea serpent from a Coney Island carousel became a bona fide hit from the get go. With its fine dining experience and classic Disco it became legendary hosting many celebrities from the political and film world.

80 Grove Street (212) 924-3558

Splash

Splash Bar New York (SBNY) has evolved into a world-wide phenomenon in the Gay Nightclub scene. The club has featured many famous guest performers such as Brittany Spears and Patti Labelle and has been used as a set location for Sex & the City.

50 West 17th Street (212) 691-0073

XL Lounge

This 14,000-square-foot gay dance club—backed by nightlife legends John Blair and Beto Sutter—features an LED wall, two dance floors and a 200-seat cabaret theater.

512 W 42nd Street (212) 239-2999

Therapy

Located in a former carriage house and warehouse, the conversion was executed using natural materials, opening the space while retaining a warm and therapeutic feel. The space was designed by architect James Bartholomew in collaboration with Tom Johnson.

348 West 52nd Street (212) 397-1700

ROGER
NEW YORK

World rainbow
Hotels