

The Tuscany offers 120 residential-style guestrooms and suites, along with oversized living areas, and spacious baths. The Court features 199 guestrooms and suites, some with terraces and patios that offer breathtaking views of the Manhattan skyline, with some of the largest guestrooms in New York City measuring 350 to 1,000 square feet of space.

The hotels have enjoyed a long-standing history in the heart of historic Midtown, recently making New York Magazine's 'the best place to live in New York' list. The hotels were originally built in 1927 as apartments and later converted to hotels in the 1950s. The properties' unique structure has resulted in the city's largest hotel rooms and suites with standard guestrooms averaging nearly 350 square feet of space, creating a memorable New York living experience.
