

The LGBT Guide to Washington, D.C.

Restaurants

Nellie's Sports Bar

Voted best gay sports bar in the city, Nellie's is a great spot to watch a game and chow down on some delicious food. Don't miss their daily events calendar, such as two Drag Queen Brunch shows on Sunday. Enjoy their rooftop that overlooks U Street.

900 U St NW | U Street Metro | www.nelliessportsbar.com

Cobalt/Level One/30 Degrees

With a hip lounge restaurant on the main level and a dance club upstairs, you'll love their theme nights. They feature excellent bottomless brunch on the weekends and Vodka Happy Hour on Fridays (with a $10 cover), vodka is free from 11 PM – 12 AM.

1639 R St. NW | Dupont Circle Metro | www.cobaltDC.com

Bars & Nighclubs

Town Danceboutique

Town Danceboutique is the largest gay dance club in Washington, D.C. The space is a combination of a cabaret performance, a plush lounge, and a high energy dance club. Experience the drag queen shows Thursday – Saturday. 18+ on Friday night, 21+ all other nights.

2009 8th Street NW | Shaw Metro | www.towndanceboutique.com

Ziegfield's/Secrets

This is your place for go-go dancing and drag shows in D.C. It's 21+ and females must have a male escort. Bring your cash and leave your expectations at the door.

1824 Half St. SW | Navy Yard Metro | www.secretsDC.com

JR's Bar & Grill

A great bar to “start the night,” this neighborhood spot features nightly themes ranging from show tunes to cabarets. Visit the ATM first – cash only.

1519 17th St. NW | Dupont Circle Metro

Green Lantern

A little off the beaten path, Green Lantern is a good hangout with a “bear” and “otter” scene. If you go shirtless on Thursday nights, drinks are free.

1335 Green Ct NW | McPherson Square Metro | www.greenlanternDC.com

Number Nine

Newly renovated D.C. LGBT bar in the heart of Logan's Circle features cocktail masters and nightly specials.

1435 P Street | Dupont Circle Metro | www.numbernineDC.com

Phase One

The oldest operating lesbian bar in the country is located in the Capitol Hill neighborhood. Phase One has weekly karaoke and Wii bowling tournaments as well as jello wrestling every second Wednesday of the month. Men must be escorted by a lady.

525 8th Street SE | Eastern Market Metro | www.phase1DC.com