Events in Hong Kong

- Hong Kong ArtWalk 2012 (for everyone)
Hong Kong ArtWalk 2012 (<http://www.hongkongartwalk.com/>) is Hong Kong's biggest charity art event with 60 galleries in Central, SoHo, Wan Chai, Happy Valley and Aberdeen, serving complimentary drinks and leading restaurants sponsoring food served in each gallery. Proceeds will benefit the Society for Community Organization.
- Hong Kong Lesbian & Gay Film Festival
Since 1989, Hong Kong Lesbian & Gay Film Festival is being held in November every year, lasting for two weeks. For details, please visit <http://hkgfff.hk/eng/index.html>.

Beaches

- Middle Bay Beach (Hong Kong Island)
Middle Bay Beach is a popular gay beach in Hong Kong attracting both locals and visitors. As it is not directly accessible by public transport, visitors have to walk from Repulse Bay to the Middle Bay Beach.
- South Bay Beach (Hong Kong Island)
Less busy than Middle Bay Beach, but the South Bay Beach is still popular with tourists and locals. The gay section is on the left-hand side of the beach. There is no direct public transport to South Bay Beach, so visitors have to walk from Repulse Bay.
- Cheung Sha Beach (Lantau Island)
Located on the south coast of Lantau Island, Cheung Sha Beach is one of Hong Kong's longest and most beautiful beaches, splitting into two sections by a rocky outcrop. It attracts mostly local gay sunbathers close to the rocky outcrop.
