

“A contemporary approach that centers on a philosophy of complimenting the individual’s lifestyle, both leisure and business.”

Conveniently located at the heart of midtown, and served by our METRO’s “Dupont Circle” station, our property is the perfect choice and ideally located near popular LGBT venues.

“Must be there...” events:

- ✓ THE ANNUAL CAPITAL PRIDE: on its 37th Anniversary, join us from May 30 through June 10 (2012)! The parade steps off on Saturday, June 9, 2012 at 4:30p; travelling through Dupont Circle, 17th Street, and through northwest Washington DC.
- ✓ HIGH HEEL RACE: every Halloween, see more than 100 drag queens dashing down 17th street (NW)!
- ✓ DC Cherry Blossom Festival: DC is tickled with pink! See us in the spring when the gorgeous pink and white petals bloom for the first time through the city.

The nightlife:

- ✓ J.R.’s Bar: Great drink specials, campy videos, friendly bartenders and a pool table keep JR's packed 7 days a week. If you're looking for a casual place for a drink, JR's is the place to go, right in the heart of the the primary gay hood.
- ✓ COBALT: Washington’s Gay lounge premier & nightspot - Cobalt has been setting the standard for years. Still wildly popular today, the "place to be seen" keeps it fresh and innovative with an unparalleled lineup of the city's most eclectic DJs, electric parties, and a staff that has all the class without the attitude.
- ✓ TOWN Danceboutique: while DC’s loaded with LGBT bars, not everyone offers the dancing experience as this spot. – don’t forget to say hello to Ba’Naka, resident drag queen!
- ✓ BEACON BAR & GRILL: our very own restaurant in our hotel; known for our reputable “Champagne Weekend Brunches”, and stands as one of the relevant rooftop bars to go to in the summer.

Quick Tips for the tourist: Not only is Dupont walkable from our Beacon property, it’s also one of the best ways to stroll from shops and monuments. If you catch yourself not doing anything on a Sunday morning, The Dupont Circle Farmer’s Market is the place for fresh food. Either experiencing the historic U Street Corridor or Georgetown, there’s always a quick METRO ride across state lines – taking in the beautiful landmarks of Arlington, VA. or Bethesda, MD.
