

New York

America's largest city New York, and one of the world's true great bastions of culture and commerce in addition to being the self-styled capital of the world; the Big Apple is arguably also the 'gay capital of the world'.

Gay Pride New York is probably the world's biggest pride celebration, and arguably the most spectacular of parades. The city turns into one big rainbow-colored party zone, stretching from Fifth Avenue across to Greenwich Village and onto the Hudson River piers.

Typically, the NYC Gay Pride Parade is held on the last Sunday in June. Also celebrated about the same time is the annual Gay Pride rally and the annual Dance on the Pier, all culminating in the big parade and the Pridefest street fair wrapping up Gay Pride Week.

Come celebrate in the city where Stonewall started it all, New York City. The main gay districts of New York include the East Village, West Village, Chelsea and Hell's Kitchen.

Local Restaurants

Cafeteria

119 7th Avenue
212.414.1717

www.cafeteriagroup.com

It's open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week so this café has plenty of practice turning tables. Brunch dishes like Biscuits & Gravy and Croissant French Toast come fast, but they're high quality and inexpensive. It is electric and modern in style, yet has an intimate ambiance.

Elmo Restaurant

156 7th Avenue
212.337.8000

www.elmorerestaurant.com

A jumping Chelsea eatery that boasts trendy interesting décor, colorful cocktails and a beautiful crowd. Elmo pairs all this with a menu of comfort food and delectable desserts, which is why this swanky spot is in popular demand every night of the week. Reservations are recommended.

You'll love this sleek hotspot with the chicest of chow!
