

Out & About

Eaton DC is located in one of the most diverse and welcoming cities in the world. The District is home to people and preferences from every color of the rainbow.

Bars and Restaurants

The Gay Little Pub
12 min. Walk

A new gay pub in DC's Logan Circle featuring upscale cocktails and snacks.

Trade
14 min. Walk

A cozy and welcoming bar offering oversized cocktails for happy hour, and a festive atmosphere free of pretension.

Number 9
16 min. Walk

Intimate yet roomy, this two-level space in the heart of Logan Circle has plenty of plush seating and mixologist.

City Tap House DuPont
21 min. Walk

The sports bar chain's Dupont outpost hosts a long-running drag brunch every Saturday and Sunday with specials like bottomless mimosas.

Bunker
26 min. Walk

DC's underground gay bar and club with nightly entertainment, live DJs, and transportive decor.

Shakers
27 min. Walk

DC's newest gay bar has hit the scene hard and captured locals' hearts. Head on down for a night of dancing, drag and drink.

Up roar lounge & restaurant
28 min. Walk

This friendly, three-level bear bar cultivates an intimate atmosphere with a nice rooftop lounge to spread out.

Tips and recommendations for a queer traveler visiting DC

- Visit the Smithsonian American Art Museum's Renwick Gallery, which often has exhibits by lgbtqia+ artists.
- Check out the DC Center for the lgbtqia+ Community, which hosts events and offers resources for lgbtqia+ individuals.
- Check out the city's many lgbtqia+ friendly bookstores, such as Lambda Rising or Politics and Prose.

Make your DC adventure all your own.

For rates and promotions please visit:
www.eatonworkshop.com

