

- ✦ La Malagueta is a central coastal district facing the beach, famous for its beach bars and busy promenade. Next to the port there are clothing stores of well-known brands, Mediterranean restaurants and ice cream parlors that extend to the emblematic lighthouse of La Farola.
- ✦ Malaga city has become one of the most fashionable cities in Europe. There are cultural areas, beaches and the best alternative spaces. The LGBTQ+ community has many bars of interest around.
- ✦ The gastronomy of Malaga is a seafood cuisine, framed within the gastronomy of Andalusia, and therefore, receives influences from all the regions of the Mediterranean. The Phoenician and Roman salted meats, the Arab confectionery with honey and nuts and the Castilian cooking techniques are very famous.
- ✦ The Costa del Sol is one of the nine regions of the province of Malaga. The beaches are beautiful and the characteristic coastal towns of Andalusia too. Outside but close to Malaga there are many options to enjoy!