

THE OUT & ABOUT TRAVEL GUIDE FOR LONDON

FOOD & DRINK

OWL & MONKEY

The Owl & Monkey is a destination cocktail bar with dramatic interiors and treetop views overlooking a glazed internal atrium.

THE OTHER KITCHEN

Our street-side style cafe open for breakfast. We will be serving lunch with bistro-style kitchen with a constantly changing seasonal menu.

NIGHTLIFE

- Old Compton Street
Central London's gay village – a mix of clubs and pubs to suit all
- G-A-Y – renowned twink bar and club in Soho, pop meca
30 Old Compton St, London, W1D 4UR
- G-A-Y Late – a smaller version of GAY, open till early hours of the morning, dance wand pop
5 Goslett Yard, London, WC2H 0EA
- The Village – mixed crowd, open late 7 days a week
81 Wardour St, London, W1D 6QD
- Compton's - Leather / Bear bar
51-53 Old Compton St, London, W1D 6HN
- Duke of Wellington – mixed bar with a bear focus
77 Wardour St, London, W1D 6QB
- The Admiral Duncan – London's oldest gay bar, nightly live cabaret
54 Old Compton St, London, W1D 4UD
- The Friendly Society – underground campness, friendly by name and nature
79 Wardour St, London, W1D 6QA
- Ku Bar - twink heaven, young and trendy
30 Lisle St, London, WC2H 7BA
- Rupert Street – think mirror balls, glam and glitz
50 Rupert Street, London, W1D 6DR
- 2 Brewers (Clapham) – bar and club – trendy and lively
114 Clapham High St, London, SW4 7UJ
- Royal Vauxhall Tavern – London's most famous venue, live cabaret, and entertainment for the full queer spectrum – whoever you are
372 Kennington Ln, London, SE11 5HY
- G-A-Y @ Heaven-World famous mega-gay club, for this venture south of Soho near Charing Cross
Under the Arches, Villiers Street, London, WC2N 6NG
24HR Ticket Line: 0844 847 2351

CULTURE / ACTIVITIES

- Pride in London: July 2023
London Pride Season has a plethora of activities; from one of Europe's biggest Pride Parade's to concerts, exhibitions, movie screenings and more.
- Royal Albert Hall
Minutes' walk away from one of London's most treasured buildings, this music auditorium boasts an abundance of must see live entertainment.
- Natural history Museum and Galleries Galore
Spend a day exploring cultural hotspots such as the V&A, Saatchi and other local galleries all within walking distance.
- Hyde Park & Kensington Gardens
A short walk from The Other House is perhaps London's best-known park, the double act of Hyde Park and Kensington Gardens whose acres of space are home to the old school elegance of Kensington Palace and the new school cool of the Serpentine Galleries.

WELLBEING

THE OTHER SPACE

We offer a curated menu of spiritual, alternative, and holistic sessions exclusively available to residents and members. Each of our Wellbeing Guides we work with has been vetted, tried, and tested, to ensure we only work with the very best in their fields.

