

The Legacy Hotel is a brand new boutique hotel, located right around the corner from Hillcrest, the heart of San Diego's LGBTQ+ community. This neighborhood starts at Pride Plaza, with its 65' tall Hillcrest Pride Flag, and extends to the historic Hillcrest sign on the east end. The Pride Parade, held here each summer, is one of the United States biggest Pride marches. Hillcrest celebrates diversity year-round, and is known for its openness, hospitality, and quaint appeal. Here are some of the highlights of this 'Proud, Welcoming, and Simply Fabulous' neighborhood:

Eat & Drink

Lips: www.lipsusa.com

Dinner club with drag shows, a café menu, and gospel brunch

Flicks: www.sdflicks.com

One of San Diego's original gay video bars, with drinks, dancing, and pool tables

Urban Mo's: www.urbanmos.com

Friendly welcoming gay bar and restaurant with theme nights and an outdoor patio

Gossip Grill: www.gossipgrill.com

Female-inspired LGBTQ+ bar with quirky cocktails and comfort food

Things To Do

Cinema Under The Stars

Marston House Museum & Gardens

Hillcrest Farmers Market

Spruce Street Suspension Bridge

Balboa Park

San Diego: LGBTQ History Tour - Murder n' Mayhem \(murdernmayhem.com\)

Downtown San Diego

Gaslamp Quarter – San Diego's downtown district, known for its nightlife. Live music, dive bars, cocktail lounges, restaurants, and cigar clubs can all be found at the Gaslamp.